DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Osborne et al. (2,624,940). The previous indication of allowability of the claimed material is regretted. However Osborne shows a semi-circular cutting edge 47 on a plunger and mating groove therefor. Further there is a through opening in the jaw denoted 37. The jaws would inherently cut a strap such as a cable tie.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 2, 7-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Osborne et al. (2,264,940) in view of Sylvester (813,598). Sylvester shows the use of a conical edge in Figs 3, 4. Obviously one of ordinary skill in the art would add such edge to the device of Osborne to improve the cutting action. The nipper style cutter of Sylvester will not bend the work piece but the shear style cutter of Osborne will bend is to a certain degree. Thus the improvement in cutting.

Drawings

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the semi-cone cutting edges with gripping jaws must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claim 9 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The embodiment of claim 9 does not appear to have support in the original disclosure. Grippers are disclosed only with the embodiment of Fig 1 which does not have conical nippers or cutters.

Claim 9 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Sylvester (813,598) in view of Peterson (2590,013). Peterson shows the use of cutters with gripping jaws that are mounted in front thereof. The tool thus has a dual function. Sylvester shows nipper jaws that are conical (vertical exterior surface with a conical interior surface). Obviously one of ordinary skill would add grippers to the Sylvester device to take advantage of its force multiplying handles and add a use therefor.

Conclusion

The remarks have been considered. In view of the above statement as to anticipation claim 1 has been rejected. The arguments for the remaining claims are moot in view of the newly cited art.
